The chair read details of the planning application; the plans were on display. As the applicant was not present, no further information was available. The vote was, in favour 14, against 2, abstain 1.

AOB

The clerk sought approval to appoint the current insurers (AON) for a further three years to obtain a 10% discount on the annual premium. This was agreed.

The clerk sought further approval to write to the chief executive of the Trent Valley Internal Drainage Board complaining of the tardiness in implementing the flood alleviation scheme. This was agreed

The chair reminded the meeting of the previously agreed date of Saturday 25th for volunteers to tidy the village and specifically the cemetery after consultation with the Rev. C Levy. As regards clearing litter in the "cutting", Peter Stead recommended referring this to Council Litter Squad. This was agreed.

The chair urged all residents to be extra vigilant due to potential thieves visiting his own premises at 5.30 am. This matter had been reported.

There being no further business, the meeting closed at 8.53 pm
